

Purple Tote Bag Program

Purple tote bags are just one way our team members deliver for people and communities in need. Learn how to participate in the program below.

Follow these steps to plan a collection and get your totes:

- 1 Identify a nonprofit and their needs then complete the Purple Tote request form.
- 2 Collect the items and deliver them to the nonprofit of your choice at a mutually agreeable time.
- 3 Capture pictures of the collection and post them on your social media channels using @FedEx and #FedExTotes.

Note: Purple Tote Donations made with personal or corporate funds are not eligible for reimbursement.

Get inspired by these sample tote items:

- Canned food to help your local food pantry feed a hungry family
- Books for your local literacy organization to help an adult learn to read
- Art supplies for a local children's charity to boost a child's creativity
- Tools to help build a house for a family in need
- Baby formula for a local shelter to feed a child
- School supplies for a local educational organization to donate to a child in need
